*I've checked my list, not once but twice
 And I see that Bobby's been extra nice
 And you know what happens to good girls and boys
 Santa Claus brings them their favourite toys!*

Love, Santa, Mrs. Claus, the Elves and the Reindeer Team.

*I made a snowman round and flat
 And on his head I put a hat
 He sat out in the sun all day
 And slowly melted all away.
 But I can tell just where he sat
 Because he didn't take his hat.*

Love, Santa, Mrs. Claus, the Elves and the Reindeer Team.

Dear Bobby,

Ho! Ho! Ho! It's almost Christmas and everyone here at the North Pole is very busy. The elves are putting the finishing touches on the toys and I'm preparing the reindeer and my sleigh for that long trip to Brandon, Manitoba on Christmas Eve. When my reindeer and I arrive at your house, we will try real hard not to wake you by making a lot of noise on the roof!

Bobby, I checked my list twice and saw that you've been a very good boy this year which makes me SO happy! I issued special instructions to the elves to make something wonderful just for you!

Please keep up the good work, especially around the holidays. Could you also help your mom and dad keep your toys and clothes picked up so I don't trip over anything when I come to see you? I would really appreciate that!

Please go to bed early on Christmas Eve... you know I won't come until you're fast asleep and your house is one of the first stops on my list!

Seeing you soon!

Love, Santa

Dear Sarah,

Merry Christmas! Things are very busy here at the North Pole. Rudolph and the other reindeer are so excited about our Christmas Eve trip, especially the one to your house in Brandon, Manitoba! I have some wonderful presents for you that I just know you are going to love!

The elves have wrapped your presents so carefully with beautiful papers and bows. One of the elves tripped over one of your bows and got tangled in the ribbons! Ho! Ho! Ho! I repaired it though and gave your present an extra special touch! They look fantastic! I just know you are going to love them!

Sarah, I've been watching you this year and know you've been good. Please keep up the good work, and keep helping mom and dad.

Please go to bed early on Christmas Eve. I have a busy night and I won't come until you're fast asleep! It won't be long now.

I'll see you Christmas Eve,

Love, Santa

PS. Don't forget to look in your stocking. Oh and please leave something to eat for Rudolph and the rest of the reindeer too. They really like carrots, but they will eat just about anything.
