Keystone Centre Announces General Manager

BRANDON, MB

After three months of examining organizational structure and identifying candidates, the Executive Committee of the Keystone Agricultural and Recreational Centre Incorporated has interviewed and selected a new General Manager.

Tim Silversides, Chairman of the board announced today that Dan Robertson, B.A., C.G.A., is the centre's new General Manager. Dan joined the Keystone Centre management team as the Controller in November of 2002, following the restructuring of the Board of Directors and has been the organization's Acting General Manager since April 13 of this year. Dan also worked for the Keystone Centre from May 1996 to April 1999 as an Engineer.

"Over the past four and a half years, Dan has demonstrated many times, his passion and commitment to the facility. The General Manager position has been Dan's career goal for the past ten years. His understanding of the Keystone Centre and its importance in the community has helped move us closer to that ever elusive goal of operational self-sufficiency," remarked Tim Silversides, Board Chairman.

Patty Griffith, the organization's most recent General Manager, resigned April 2, 2007, after filling the role for the past five and a half years.

The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors who was responsible for hiring the new General Manager is comprised of Tim Silversides FCGA, Ken Fitzpatrick and Darrel Hack.
